Approval Process [Mandatory]

- Mobile application projects should be approved before commencing and should follow the approval process defined in the RISA software lifecycle management guidelines and ICT spend control guidelines
- Once a mobile application is developed, written approval for publication should be obtained from RISA with information provided on the application’s compliance to Government design and security guidelines

---

Revision #1
Created 26 September 2025 13:07:02 by RISA
Updated 26 September 2025 13:07:56 by RISA