

Training delivery and learning materials

Once participants are approved, they are enrolled in their assigned training programs. For online courses, they will also receive clear guidance on how to access the training portal and start the course without difficulty.

Before the training begins, participants will receive key materials to help them prepare and make the most of the learning experience. These may include:

- Course syllabus
- Reading materials and resources
- Access information for online platforms

Revision #1

Created 21 November 2025 08:28:35 by RISA

Updated 21 November 2025 08:31:48 by RISA